

Free Training for Family Caregivers

“UNDERSTANDING & RESPONDING TO DEMENTIA RELATED BEHAVIOR”

Are you caring for a relative or friend with Alzheimer’s disease or related dementia?

North Shore Elder Services is hosting a free Alzheimer’s Association program designed for caregivers. This training offers guidance and practical information on how to handle difficult behaviors.

The presentation will address ways to handle some of the most challenging behaviors that can arise when caring for someone with memory changes.

This program is not appropriate for the person with dementia and is intended for caregivers only.
